

GUIDED READING ACTIVITY 14-2*Radicals in Control

Directions: Outlining Reading the section and completing the outline below will help you learn more about how the Radical Republicans took control of Reconstruction. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.

I. African Americans' Rights

- A. When the Southern states elected former Confederate leaders to _____, Northerners realized that Johnson's Reconstruction plan was not strong enough.
- B. Southern states had passed _____, laws that attempted to control freed men and women.
- C. Congress gave the _____ the power to set up special courts to try individuals charged with violating the rights of African Americans.
- D. Congress passed a _____ bill that overturned the black codes, and overrode President Johnson's vetoes.
- E. The _____ Amendment guaranteed African Americans full rights.

II. Radical Reconstruction

- A. The _____ divided the states that had not ratified the Fourteenth Amendment into military districts.
- B. President Johnson violated the _____ by removing Secretary of War _____ from office without Senate approval.
1. The House of Representatives responded by voting to _____ the president.
 2. Johnson was _____ during the Senate trial.
- C. The Republicans chose _____ as their presidential candidate in the 1868 election.
- D. The last major piece of Reconstruction legislature was the _____, which gave African American men the right to vote.

GUIDED READING ACTIVITY 14-1

Reconstruction Plans

Directions: Answering Questions Reading the section and answering the questions below will help you learn more about Reconstruction. Refer to your textbook to answer the questions.

1. What was the term given to the period of rebuilding the South?

2. What was Lincoln's Ten Percent Plan?

3. What did Lincoln offer to all white Southerners, other than Confederate leaders, who gave loyalty to the Union?

4. What three states set up governments under Lincoln's plan?

5. Who did the Wade-Davis Bill bar from public office?

6. What was the Freedmen's Bureau?

7. Who assassinated President Lincoln?

8. Who became president after Lincoln's death?

9. Under Andrew Johnson's Reconstruction plan, how could high-ranking or wealthy Confederates be pardoned?

10. What did a state have to do before entering the Union?
